

The airwaves should belong to the people. Sinclair Broadcasting is demonstrating that the airwaves belong to a select, wealthy group of pro-Bush media moguls. It is unfair, illegal, and unethical for Sinclair to force their stations to air a "documentary" that falsely and maliciously attacks John Kerry.